Mayor Eldridge Hawkins, Jr. Draws National Attention in Ebony Magazine's "Young Leaders 2009."

In the April 2009 issue of Ebony Magazine, on the newsstands now, Orange Mayor Eldridge Hawkins, Jr. is cited as one of 21 African-American "talented and committed men and women, age 30 and younger, recognized as Ebony's 2009 young leaders... who are excelling in their careers and giving back to their communities"

The group includes young leaders from the ministry, government and politics, business, and non-profit organizations. The description and photo of Mayor Hawkins appears on page 90.

Ebony, published by Johnson Publishing Company of Chicago, is one of America's oldest and most widely respected magazines covering the African-American community.
