

Middle school to host benefit concert for Haiti

Orange Middle School will be the site for a benefit concert to raise funds and items for the people of Haiti.

"A Family Oriented Concert to Benefit Haiti" is scheduled for March 13 at 6 p.m. inside the school's auditorium.

There is a suggested contribution for attendees. Contributions of goods also are being sought. Concert organizers said the greatest needs are tents, sheets, pillows, flashlights with batteries, industrial pots, disposable eating utensils, non-perishable food items, bottled water, baby items, such as diapers, wipes and lotions, and bug repellent.
