

CITY OF ORANGE RECREATIONAL DEPARTMENT HOSTS GRAMMAR SCHOOL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

BY WILLIAM HATHAWAY

Orange High School was the spot for young basketball players in Orange to play for titles. The first game involved the 3rd and 4th graders, Oakwood Avenue would go on to beat Central Avenue by the score of 14-9 in the contest. The other game pitted Park Avenue's 5th graders against the group from Forest Street School. Park Avenue took the win, beating Forest Street 29-21.

Mayor Eldridge Hawkins, Jr. presented trophies to the teams at the end of each game. There was an Easter egg hunt before the championship games, sponsored by the orange recreational department.
