

Students from Orange graduate at ECC

Diplomas and certificates are awarded to 49 at ceremony in Newark

Essex County College graduated 1,120 students May 27 during its 41st commencement ceremony in the Prudential Center in Newark.

Students who recorded a 3.85 to 4 grade-point average graduated with highest honors; 3.65 to 3.84 earned high honors and those with a 3.50 to 3.64 average graduated with honors.

Orange residents who received associate degrees or, if noted, certificates in specialized fields of study, included:

- Hanif Abdus-Salaam, liberal arts.
- Edem Aguiar, nursing with honors.
- Andre Brown, biology, pre-medicine.
- LaTrice Chambers, social science.
- Exceviour Chisanga, accounting.
- Niger Daniels, accounting.

- Michael Deji, accounting.
- Alleain Ennals, education.
- Stephanie Eyong, biology, premedicine.
- Fay Farrier, business administration.
- Enock Faustin, criminal justice with highest honors.
- Elainia Graham, human and social services.
- Tamara Herbert-Lee, accounting.
- Jacklyn Hunte, nursing.
- Oluwasegun Ibitokun, general science.
- Oyinlola Ibitokun, general science.
- Patricia Ihuoma, early childhood education.
- Docson Jean-Baptiste, mathematics.
- Anne Jure, education with high honors.
- Agnieszka Kalita, business administration.
- Marie Laurence Kouassi, lib-

- eral arts with highest honors.
- Mavis Kpeli, general science.
- Ada Licin, nursing.
- Irad Licin, general science.
- Ernest Lindsay, social science.
- Daniel Llicus, music education.
- Rondon Manwaring, general science with highest honors.
- Patricia Neal, general science.
- Paul Ohene-Boboli, human/social services.
- Peter Oleka, nursing.
- Aaron Osgood, art.
- Joseph Palermo, civil construction engineering technology with honors.
- Senghor Paul, business administration.
- Johanna Peseros, human/social services.
- Maria Reales, business administration.
- Gersandre Rejouis, nursing.

- Takiba Robinson, human/social services.
- Guemila Sawadogo, computer science with highest honors.
- Patel Scott, certificate for Internet-Web Page Design Specialist.
- Natalie Shaw, certificate for Licensed Practical Nurse.
- Shaquanna Sweeney, certificate for Licensed Practical Nurse.
- Mireille Taho, liberal arts.
- Gabrell Thompson, biology, premedicine.
- Jennifer Torres, liberal arts.
- Siah Tyler, nursing with highest honors.
- Maria Walker, business administration.
- Gregory West, manufacturing engineering technology, electronic engineering technology.
- Nadege Zebaze, nursing.
- Agnieszka Goldyn, physical therapist assistant.