

City officials open cooling centers

As temperatures move into the upper 80s and 90s, city officials Tuesday offered locations for residents who wish to escape the heat.

Besides public buildings, such as the Orange Public Library, city officials have made arrangements to provide cooling stations at four locations:

- Martin P. DeMarzo Fire Headquarters, Central and Lincoln avenues.
- Washington Manor, 340 Thomas Blvd.
- Sales Towers, 98 High St.
- St. Matthew AME Church, 336 Oakwood Ave.

Hours of operation are Monday to Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Fridays, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Contact Vincent DiFlippo, health officer, at 973-266-4073 for additional information.