II. Requirements for the Medical Examination Program

The proposed medical program must allow the City to arrange for physical examinations without cumbersome forms and/or scheduling procedures. Moreover, these examinations must be scheduled and completed quickly. Results, including negative drug screens, must be reported to the City of Orange within forty-eight (48) hours of the examination and receipt of the results.

This program must be designed (1) to assess the physical suitability of applicants and/or promotional candidates for at least fifty (50) candidates per year and (2) to identify and document pre-existing medical conditions to avoid future claims that the conditions are a result of employment with the City of Orange. The examination should include a health history questionnaire, checks of height, weight, blood pressure, heart rate, visual and hearing acuity. It should also include a urinalysis (glucose tolerance test), a drug screen and other elements of a general physical examination, as well as tests specifically enumerated herein.

The physical examination may include if requested, fitness evaluation conducted by a physical therapist or equivalent medical personnel. This evaluation should rate the candidate's flexibility, strength, range of motion and lifting limitations. The evaluation should result in a report and a recommendation regarding the candidate's ability to safely and reliably perform the essential functions of the applicant's employment position.

The examination may include psychological questions to assess the candidate. If the provider determines a psychological evaluation is required, then that evaluation shall be performed an additional charge as provided herein.
